

TERIBLE THUNDER STORM AND DELUGE.—"ST. LUCIA, Sept. 30.—For some time past a scarcity of rain, such as the month of September is not remembered to have sustained in St. Lucia before, prevailed—the thermometer daily ranging as high as 80 to 90 degrees in the shade, from noon to 3 and 4 P. M. Not the slightest indication of any change in the weather was to be observed until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of yesterday. Then the sluice gates of the heavens seemed opened indeed; the river of Castries, swollen by the tributaries of the adjacent hills soon overflowed its banks, and dispersed itself with impetuosity through every street, the waters forcing themselves into the ground floor of each house along their course, so that between 8 and 9 o'clock the greater part of the surface of this town was literally covered with water. In the burial ground, situated on a hill side, several graves were uprooted by the violence of the draining water courses, and coffins of the dead exposed to view; besides these, several houses have been washed away."

FIRST AND ONLY CHARGE AGAINST ANY WHIG FOR VOTING ILLEGALLY.—Mr. John Sparrow, charged upon the oath of a certain Mr. Perego, the Locofoco judge of the 13th ward, with having voted illegally in the 11th ward, was tried before esquire Joseph Brown this morning, and was honorably acquitted.—Balt. Pat.

A COMPLIMENT.—A London paper says:—"Webster's American Dictionary of the English language is now ordinarily esteemed the best work of its kind, it forms two octavo volumes, containing 85,000 words, the price is three guineas, and an earlier date than 1841 should not be purchased."

ELOQUENCE.—The following was given by some contemporary as a specimen of Western eloquence:

"Americans! This is a great country, wide, vast, and in the southwest unlimited. Our republic is yet destined to reannex South America—to occupy the Russian possessions, and again to recover possession of those British provinces, which the power of the old thirteen colonies won from the French on the plains of Abraham! all rightfully ours to recapture. Ours is a great and growing country. Faneuil Hall was its cradle! but what—what will be found timber enough for its coffin? Scoop all the water out of the Atlantic Ocean, and its bed would not afford a grave sufficient for its corpse. And yet America has scarcely grown out of the cradle of boyhood. Europe! what is Europe! She is no what—nothing—a circumstance—a cypher—a mere obsolete idea. We have faster steamboats, swifter locomotives, larger creeks, bigger plantations, better mill privileges, broader lakes, higher mountains, deeper cataclysms, louder thunder, forked lightning, braver men, handsomer women, and more money than England dar have! (Thundering applause)"

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—If we read the history of disorders we are astonished that men live; if of cures we are still more astonished that they die. And yet in fact nearly all diseases have a common origin, viz: in the organs which prepare and modify the blood, and a remedy, directed to the seat of disease, will remove a host of phenomena. It is the peculiar characteristic of Sands's Sarsaparilla, that its searching operation reaches the causes of disease, and the cures it performs are therefore radical and thorough. The health of the human system depends almost entirely upon the state of the blood. If the vitalizing fluid which pervades every tissue, every membrane, fibre, filament, gland, or other organ, primary or subsidiary—if the body be charged with the elements of disease, sickness must be the consequence, and until the causes of disease existing in the blood, are eradicated, no permanent relief can be expected. It is here that the powerful health restoring properties of Sands's Sarsaparilla are manifested; and for this reason, in Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all eruptive diseases, as well as in all derangements of the secretory organs, it is considered infallible.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE WASHINGTON MEDICAL SCHOOL.

On Monday last the Medical Department of the Columbian College was opened at the new Medical Institution with an introductory lecture by Professor Sewall, giving a comparative view of the present state of medical education in Europe and the United States, together with an inquiry into the causes which tend to retard the progress of medical science in the latter country. The lecture was listened to with deep attention by a large and highly intelligent audience. We noticed among the number several officers of the Government, the British Minister, and many of the most respectable inhabitants of our city. Nor was less interest manifested by the crowded audience of the succeeding day in listening to a lecture by Professor Page on the Progress and Utility of Science, which exhibited talent of the most brilliant character. The last of the public introductory lectures was delivered yesterday by Professor Thomas in the Department of Materia Medica with great ability and eloquence, before the President and his lady, and many of our most distinguished citizens.

It was very gratifying to see the interest which the citizens manifest in this enterprise, and to notice, from the number of students, the prospect of so large a class. The building is extensive in its arrangements, and is situated in the central part of the city. The lecture-rooms are commodious and neatly fitted up, and the departments for the infirm are admirably arranged. We doubt not that the enterprise of rearing a medical school at the metropolis of our country will meet with the patronage of the citizens as it has with that of the Government, and be eminently successful.—Nat. Intel.
